Cyclone Artists to Appear on Extreme Sport DVD by Phat Mountain Films

Toronto, ON – October 4, 2006 -- Cyclone Records is pleased to announce an alliance with Phat Mountain Films, an independent film firm specializing in producing high-energy, over-the-top, extreme sports videos.

Directed by Glen Decker, their upcoming DVD, "Divided Aggression," showcases elaborate freestyle/stunt snowmobiling and features eight tracks by Cyclone Records' Inner Surge, Creature Republic, Tripchord, and Pitch Union. Additional music will also be provided by Urbnet Records. Brad Trew of Cyclone Records says "combining the metal edge of the Cyclone acts with the hip-hop rhythms of Urbnet creates a pace and tension that keeps the film moving from beginning to end and divides the segments into definable parts. The music itself becomes a main characteristic of this film."

The growing sport of snowmobiling has seen changes in the past few years throughout Newfoundland. In the past, racing was the dominant form of aggressive riding. The focus then began to shift with the change of the climate patterns. With the unfortunate snow conditions of 2006, racing was non-existent on the west coast of Newfoundland. In order to bring the sport to nearby towns, freestyle grew in popularity.

Filmed in Gros Morne National Park on the west coast of Newfoundland, the Long Range Mountains became the new playground for adrenaline junkies in the form of freeriding. Rough terrain and harsh winters are the perfect backdrop to this extreme sport.

"Divided Aggression" gives you an inside look at Newfoundland's finest talents in this underground sport. Witness 100 foot ramp hits, huge backcountry jumps, upside-down 180 whips, sick freestyle, and the craziest freeriding on the east side of the continent. Combined with the high-energy music presented by these bands, this film will be a non-stop adrenaline rush.

The film will be released in theatres later this year with a limited edition DVD distributed on 15 October 2006. Also, check out their previous release, "Payin' Dues".
