Cyclone Records Partners with Slakrz Radio for Interactive Radio Program

Toronto, ON - December 12, 2006 -- Cyclone Records has teamed up with streaming Internet radio station, Slakrz Radio. An initiative of Mike Caseley of Slakrz Radio, the goal is to bridge the gap between artists and the industry and to provide a forum where artists can get feedback and guidance on moving their project to the next level.

The show, "Slakrz Radio - Interactive Slam Jam," will air every Sunday Night at 9:00 pm EST starting 14 January 2007 and hosted by Mike the Slakr and Price with special guest Brad Trew from Cyclone Records. Interested bands are asked to contact Mike at mike@slakrz.com with band name, website with music samples, bio info and location.

The show is designed for unsigned artists to get their music heard by a real record executive so you can get feedback on what you might or might not need to do to put the finishing touches on your music. Mike Caseley explains, "We are in no way promising you a record deal, all this show does is take all the red tape out of getting a meeting with someone to hear your music and to make sure your demo tape does not end up in the garbage can after you leave the receptionist's office. You will actually get to talk to Brad Trew on the show live. How much easier can Slakrz Radio make it for you to meet with a REAL record label?"
